Mr. McComas Says the President is Growing Ex-Representative McComas has returned from a tour of the northwest, occuping about two months. He was in Washington last night and talked about the sentiment of the west as he found it. President Harrison, he says, is very strong in that section of the country and the people expect him to be renominated. HURRYING OUT RYE FROM RUSSIA did not recommend and impression which did not pass away in an hour. He has been growing in favor ever since, Mr. McComas Gen. Miles Does Not Approve of a thinks, and day by day is getting stronger. He says there is a great deal of talk of Blaine among the political leaders, but the people generally believe that Blaine is loyal to Harrison; that he will not be a candidate, and that Harrison will be renominated. The renomination of Harrison is what they all expect and Mr. McComas says he cannot afford, under any circumstances, to accept the nomination of governor of Maryland, as he will not have time to make the run. He thinks that a strong farmer candidate will be nominated by the republicans and will make a good run. WASHINGTON DELIGHTFUL

HARRISON IN THE WEST.

Senator Morgan of Alabama has been in Washington, except for an occasional visit to Alabama, ever since Congress adjourned. "Say what you may," he said to a Star reporter to-day, "there is no place in this country—city or summer resort—more beautiful and more pleasant to spend the summer in than Washington. It is certainly the most beautiful place in this country, the climate is pleasant and be-discountry, the climate is pleasant and be-discountry, the climate is pleasant and be-discountry. To those who make it a matter of business to loaf for a certain period in the summer, which I am not in the habit of doing, Washington gives a delightful opportunity to trade off between loading and working."

The Senator's appearance certainly does not indicate that his health has suffered any impairment from his making Washington his summer residence.

BALMACEDA IN STRAITS. At Least so London Advices Represent Him

LONDON, August 22 .- The Times today publishes a letter from Lisbon in which the write declares that President Balmaceda of Chili, being unable to borrow money, seized the silver bullion in the treasury of Santiago de Chili, which was stored there as security for the fiduciary circulation, and that he tried to transport this silver abroad as payment for ships and arms ordered in Europe.

The writer of this letter adds that Balmaceda was not able to hire a private vessel to undertake the transportation of the silver, and he finally persuaded the commander of the Espiegle, a British man-of-war, to convey $1,000,-000 to Montevideo, where that sum was landed on August 15. The Times, commenting upon this letter, says that it is confident that that was done without the consent of the British admirality, adding that it seems as though a British man-of-war had been made the accomplice of a downright robbery. The transaction, the Times says, demands a full and prompt inves-

A NOVICE BUT FORMIDABLE.

Max Fenner, the "Ierrible Swede," Gave Riordan a Desperate Fight. SAN FRANCISCO, August 22.-Max Fenner, the Terrible Swede," who was knocked out last night by Con Riordan in the eighteenth round of a hotly contested fight, is a novice in the ring, having received his training here within the past eight months, but his muscular develop-ment, which is abnormal, makes him a most formidable looking man in the ring. This was

This was his second finish fight.

Riordan's superior generalship alone saved him, Fenner having him almost knocked out in the third round. Fenner's face was much battered, and Riordan lost considerable blood from the nose and mouth. At the beginning of the eighteenth round Fenner made a rush which was stopped by Riordan's right, followed by his left behind the ear, which drove Fenner to the floor like a log and he was counted out.

ton. It is certainly the most beautiful place in this country, the climate is pleasant and between the city and suburbs you can always find it cool enough. There is no other place to me so delightful to spend the vacation months.

Another strong point in the identification is the fact that Abbott was from Salem, Mass., and Almy is said to have come from that city.

Abbott is the son of Harris E. Abbott of every invividual in the country highly for a certain period in the summer which.

Chicago, August 22.—Gen. N. A. Miles, when questioned in regard to the scheme to consolidate the state troops and place them under the control of the Secretary of War, as outlined in a dispatch from St. Louis, said: "I do not believe in consolidating the state troops and forming them into practically a standing army of 100,000 men and placing them under the control of whoever may be Secretary of War. Such a measure, in my opinion, would be ill-advised and dangerous.
